

Keeping the Sabbath Day Holy

A friend invites you to come to his birthday party. The birthday party is on Sunday. What do you do?

Be Honest

You are practicing your baseball pitching in the street with your friends, and your ball accidentally hits the neighbor's car and dents it. Everyone else is running away. What do you do?

Do Not Cheat

You did your homework, but you didn't understand a couple of the problems. Some of the kids who didn't understand some problems are exchanging answers. They want to exchange answers with you. What do you do?

Obey Your Parents

Your parents tell you to clean your room, but it is a big mess and it could be a difficult task. What do you do?

Dress Modestly

A friend gives you an amazing shirt, but it doesn't have sleeves on it. What do you do?

Do Not Use Profanity

Your friends say words that are not appropriate, and now you find the words coming to your thoughts and even slipping out of your mouth once and awhile. What can you do?

Tithing

You are invited to go to the movies with your friends but you don't have enough money to pay for it. The only other money you have is your tithing money you have set aside. What do you do?

Pray

It takes a lot of time to get ready for school in the morning, and you feel like you will be late if you take the time to pray. What do you do?

Read the Scriptures

You don't understand the scriptures sometimes, and during those times you feel like it isn't doing any good reading them. What can you do?

Be Kind to Others

A boy who isn't very good at sports wants to join your baseball team. What do you do?

Keep the Word of Wisdom

You're at a sleepover party with some friends, and one of your friends finds some alcohol or medications in a cabinet. The friend insists that everyone should try it, that it would be fun. What do you do?

Be Chaste

You come across a website that has inappropriate things on it. You shut it down, but you are afraid you might come across sites like that again, and you might be tempted to look at them. What can you do?